A Quick Word from Cochabamba, Bolivia "Glena and I are now in the last weeks of our sojourn in Bolivia. For the last several weeks we've been taking one-on-one classes at a Spanish language school. Every day we have one-on-one classes with our friendly and talented Bolivian instructors. Basically, I have problems conjugating verbs, remembering the meaning of words (I have literally gone back to the dictionary over a dozen times with particular words), pronouncing words, understanding pronouns....basically everything. But actually, it's kind of fun. We've been doing lots of walking and reading. We've had some complicated visa adventures. We've eaten in a good number of little restaurants. We've greatly enjoyed spending time with Jordan and Jenny. Blessings to all of you, our dear church family." Steve and Glena
